Sub: Guidelines for attending of Even Semester Examinations for the AY 2020-21-reg

1. Due to surge in the COVID-19, the physical classes have been suspended and online classes have been conducted. Due to pandemic & lockdown, the schedule for even semester examinations got disturbed and identification of the service provider for conduct of online proctored examinations is underway. It is planned to schedule the online proctored Examinations during third week of August, 2021 subject to the COVID-19 related issues.
2. Further, IMU has decided to conduct the Even Semester Examinations through Online Proctored mode in MCQ pattern with negative marking. The Time-Table of End Semester Examinations, instructions and details regarding registration for examinations will be hosted in the IMU website in due course. The students may write these examinations from their residence by using laptop / desktop. Students who are already available in the Institute / Campus for attending practical classes / examinations have to write examinations by using Laptop / desktop. No other mode will be entertained.
3. The question paper templates for Online Proctored Examinations (MCQs) are as follows:

S No	Programe	Total Marks [Theory]	Duration*	MCQs
