1. The Executive Council in its 85th meeting has resolved to amend para 13(b) of the regulations of the online MBA (Maritime Management) programme for Continuous Evaluation/University Examinations as below:

13. Continuous Evaluation/University Examinations

Existing Regulations	Amended Regulations
b) Furthermore, in a one-credit course, students are evaluated with 20 multiple-choice questions, quizzes, and True/False questions every five hours of lectures. Similarly, in a two-credit course, this assessment occurs every ten hours of lectures, while in a three-credit course, it occurs every fifteen hours of lectures. A case study review test is also administered at the end of the course, adding 35 questions based on case studies.	(b) Furthermore, in a one-credit course, students are evaluated with 20 multiple-choice questions, quizzes, and True/False questions every five hours of lectures. Similarly, in a two-credit course, this assessment occurs every ten hours of lectures, while in a three-credit course, it occurs every fifteen hours of lectures. A case study review test is also administered at the end of the course. An, interactive oral assessment (online/offline) will be done by a panel of 2 experts – one internal and one external.

2. The Executive Council further advised the School of Maritime Management to design rubrics for evaluation by Case study methodology through oral examination by the two experts (one internal and one external).

3. Campus Director, NMC is requested to inform Faculty members and students on the amendment in the regulations.
